

Luke 2:8-14

And there were shepherds (make a shepherds hook with your hand) living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch (hold hand above eyes and look out) over their flocks by night. An angel (flap arms) of the Lord (cross chest with L-shaped hand) appeared to them, and the glory (spread arms wide) of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified (shake hands close to chest). But the angel said to them, “Do not be afraid (point finger). I bring you good news (thumbs up) of great joy (raise arms high) that will be for all the people (point to people). Today in the town of David a Savior (cross wrist in front of chest and release) has been born to you (hold a baby); He is Christ the Lord (cross chest with C-shaped hand). This will be a sign to you (hold up index finger): You will find a baby (hold a baby) wrapped in cloths and lying (rest head on hand) in a manger.”

Suddenly (open hands big – jazz hands) a great company of heavenly host (open arms big) appeared with the angel, praising (shake hands above shoulders) God (point up) and saying,

“Glory to God in the highest (raise arms),
and on earth (make a big earth with arms) peace to men (cover heart with hands)
on whom his favor rests (thumbs up).”
